Floor Price of Rubber

*112. SHRI M. I. VARKEY MATTATHIL: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the floor price of rubber has not been declared, so far; and

(b) if so, whether Government are taking effective rescue measures to save the poor rubber growers of Kerala?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI RAMAKRISHNA HEGDE): (a) Yes, Sir. For rubber, no floor price has been declared by the Government. However, Benchmark price for rubber is fixed from time to time and the same has been announced at Rs. 34.05 per kg. for RSS IV grade and Rs. 33.55 per kg. for RSS V grade, on 28.9.98.

(b) In order to improve the domestic price of natural rubber and also to provide a remunerative price to the rubber growers, the Govt. of India has already intervened in the market and ordered procurement of natural rubber through STC at Govt. cost.

Registration of Agents by Protectorate of Emigrants

*113. SHRI ANANTRAY DEV SHANKER DAVE: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention

nas been drawn to a news-items which appeared in the Times of India, dated the 11th August, 1998 entitled "Directory of Registered Recruitment agents planned";

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether it is a fact that there is no labour attache stationed in countries where the Indian labourers are working in a large number such as Middle East countries, to look after their welfare and prevent their exploitation; and

(d) if so, the details of such countries where labour attaches are proposed to be posted?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (DR. SATYANARAYAN JATIYA): (a) to (d) In a meeting of the Protectors of Emigrants held on 10th August, 1998 the need for initiating certain measures for protecting the interests of workers going abroad for contractual employment was emphasized. These measures, inter alia, included the following:

(a) preparation of a Directory of registered recruiting agents and dissemination of the same so as to apprise the intending emigrants of the agents who are legally authorised to make recruitment of workers for deployment with the foreign employers;

(b) creation of special post of Labour Attaches in the Indian Missions abroad for solving the problems/grievances of the Indian workers during the course of their employment with the foreign employers or otherwise;

(c) setting up of a Central Manpower Export Promotion Council to render promotional and advisory services in the area of manpower export; and

(d) constitution of a Welfare Fund for the workers and/or their families in the eventuality of the worker's death or their becoming disabled during the course of employment with the foreign employers.

2. In most of the countries, particularly in the Middle East where there is much concentration of Indian workers, the officers posted in the Indian Missions have been given specific charge of labour matters and these officers have been designated as Labour Attaches or Consular (Labour). There have been suggestions that Labour Attaches may be posted in the Indian Missions specifically for this area of work. This suggestion is being examined in consultation with the Ministry of External Affairs.
